M. P. Calls for Removal of 'Hamstringing Clauses' From Conscription Act

OTTAWA, March 1.—(CP)—Hon. H. A. Bruce (P.C., Toronto Parliam.) said last night in the Commons there was some "discrepancy" in figures of army strength given by Defence Minister Ralston compared with figures given by the Wartime Information Board.

Catholics Free To Support C.C.F. If They Desire

NEW YORK, March 1.—(CP)—

Murray G. Ballantine, managing director of the Canadian Register, says in an article published in the latest issue of the Commonwealth Review, a Catholic weekly, that the plenary council of Canadian bishops meeting in Quebec last October concluded that Roman Catholics are at liberty to support or oppose the Cooperative Commonwealth Federation as they see fit.

The managing director of the official English archdiocesan paper of the "hierarchy" in Montreal said "the episcopate of Canada reached the conclusion . . . that the faithful were accorded the right of liberty to support it or oppose it as they saw fit."

"From the point of view of faith and morals," he wrote, "the C.C.F. was found to be on the same ground as all other legitimate Canadian political parties

"The church does not concern itself with political parties as such. It does not give its support, neither does it oppose them. The church is purely spiritual and economic implications of the program of the C.C.F. are not its concern."

At the support of or opposition to the C.C.F. is a purely secular matter and it is the duty of all Catholics to decide for themselves.

M.P.'s Protest Work Stoppage In Coal Mines

OTTAWA, March 1.—(CP)—C. E. Johnston (N.D.-B. Worker)

said tonight in the Commons that more than half the coal miners in the Drumheller, Alta. district are out of work and some 700 have applied for unemployment insurance.

Mr. Johnston said the condition affected morale. He wondered what the response would be if another appeal for production of coal had to be made next winter.

FACE LONG LAYOFF

The miners faced the prospect of being without work for several months more. The men who had returned from the army to dig coal and men who had gone to the mines from farms sought to leave the Drumheller Valley for other work but had not been granted permission by national security service, Mr. Johnston said.

The government still was importing "a great tonnage" of coal from the United States where miners were working 48 hours a week.

A national fuel policy should be established.

Rev. E. G. Harnett (N.D.-Maclean) said he supported Mr. Johnston although the unemployment situation was not as acute in the Alberta region as in the Drumheller.

The government had not determined on an adequate fuel policy, Mr. Harnett said. There was unemployment in time of war, he received by Mr. Johnston on the Drumheller situation reminded him of pre-war depression days.

There was no immediate reply from the government benches.

Chaloutt Severs Bloc Connections

QUEBEC, March 1.—(CP)—Rene Chaloutt, member of the Quebec legislature for L'Anjou, told the assembly yesterday he had "discontinued activities" in the Bloc Populaire party but would continue "to defend the noble cause of French Canadians."

Last Friday, Mr. Chaloutt said, Mr. Raymond, (leader of the Bloc) publicly disclosed and confirmed the fact which he had known for some time and which he had avoided until then.

At last, he has attained his aim. The removal of the worst enemies of economic dictatorship at the cost of the division of nationalists. Let us do our responsibility. History will judge him."

"As for myself," he continued, "always faithful to the same principles, I am of the opinion that it would be misleading the people to be under his present direction. However, I shall persist, with more ardor than ever, to defend the noble cause of French Canadians."

KASLO, B.C., March 1.—(CP)—British Columbia Japanese moving to jobs in Eastern Canada may be barred from entering Toronto, A. Eastwood, general manager of the British Columbia Security Commission, told Japanese at the alto centre here today.

Reports from Toronto indicate about 1,000 coast Japanese have moved into that city since Pearl Harbor.

Large Surplus Is Forecast For Saskatchewan To Make Sure Only Fit Men Are Enlisted

REGINA, March 1.—(CP)—

Premier W. J. Patterson, provincial treasurer, forecast a surplus for the current fiscal year ending April 30 next, "possibly even greater" than the $58,119 surplus for the 1934-35 fiscal year when he delivered his 11th budget speech in the legislature yesterday.

Mr. Patterson said that despite increased estimated expenditures for the next fiscal year, there will be no new taxation levied.

"The Saskatchewan government has consistently favored a revision of Dominion-provincial relations and has urged that a conference be called to consider this question," he said. "The conference should be held at the earliest possible moment," the premier said.

REVISED SOURCE

Nearly half of the provincial revenue now was fixed under the Dominion-provincial 1942 financial agreement and federal government guarantee of revenues from gasoline taxation and liquor profits, he said. Any increase in revenue would have to be from other sources, he added.

Since Jan. 1, 1943, a reduction in the public debt of Saskatchewan of $1,275,220 was reported, bringing the decrease in the last two years to $1,275,220. The public debt at Jan. 1 last was $1,977,476.

Saskatchewan had made a "wonderful recovery and today is in many respects in the best position it has been for years," he said.

Bloc "Associate" Rapped in House

OTTAWA, March 1.—(CP)—

Speaking during debate on defence department estimates yesterday, J. P. Pouliot (L.-Temiscouata) said that while Blue-Republican members "were busy collecting funds for the Blue-Republican, St. James Street we were here doing our duty as members of parliament, and we were making some noise of the cause of the private in the army."

He continued:

"While they were getting funds to pay for blackmail that was coming from a rascal who is their mouthpiece and their loud speaker, a man whom I kicked out of blackmail to a high degree in their paper, who was so bad that once he was making some noise at the door of my office in the house, so much so that I had to call a constable of the house to take him to the gallery where he went to sleep."

"That is the kind of man who teaches the people how to behave, who passes judgment on the members of parliament. It is time that the leader of Le Devoir knew who is the parliamentary correspondent of that paper, and that I kicked him out of my office."

Announcement of the awards was made some time ago.

LOVING, March 1.—(CP)—

because Mrs. Zofia Czechon's dog growled at the dog of German Col. Richard Kuntz, the latter was sentenced to pay 1,000 marks or serve three months in prison by a Nazi court at Ploetz, Poland, the Polish ministry of information reported yesterday. The judge held that Kuntz's dog was "very quiet and well-bred," but said Mrs. Czechon was guilty of "treating her dog in a spirit of hatred for everything German."

Figures on Desertions Are Given in House

OTTAWA, March 1.—(CP)—Figures on the number of army desertions in Canada since the start of the war show that the number of general service personnel who have deserted and have not been apprehended is greater than the comparable draft total in every military district but No. 4 (Montreal) and No. 5 (Quebec).

The full significance of the figures cannot be ascertained, however, since district figures—showing whether general service enlisted men are greater or less than draftee enlistment—are not available for comparison.

PROVIDED IN COMMONS

The desertion figures were provided in the Commons yesterday by Defence Minister Ralston as he answered a question from Hon. Horne Sullivan (Lib.).

General service men who deserted and are still not apprehended total 230, compared with 424 draftees deserting since the start of the war. These figures, with 80 Canadian Women's Army Corps deserters still not apprehended, make a total of 11,094.

The figures showed there is only one deserter still unaccounted for in the United Kingdom.

Collision at Sea Crew of Blazing Freighter Rescued by Navy Corvette

OTTAWA, March 1.—(CP)—The story of a collision in a blinding steel storm at sea with a freighter crew fighting scorching chemical flames before they were forced to abandon ship and accept rescue of the Canadian corvette Kenogami, was told today by naval headquarters.

Lieut. J. Leslie Percy, 41, of Toronto, handled Kenogami "like a bicycle" to get close enough to put a tow line aboard after the collision. The other merchant men in the collision continued on to port, damaged but seaworthy.

The tow was abandoned when the fire got out of control. But first the corvette crew added in attempts to extinguish the blaze.

The burning ship later broke in half and the next day was sunk by gunfire and depth charges from H.M.C.S. Wallaceburg, new escort vessel, while she was standing by.

Eighteen of the 65 survivors had been transferred to the Wallaceburg, including the skipper.

The collision occurred in a convoy. A big hole was torn in the freighter's starboard side and the boiler room and engine room were flooded, leaving the ship without lights and unable to steam or steer.

Kenogami managed to stand by on the captain's request passed in line, taking her in tow.

Eleven hours after the collision, great pillars of blue-white flame engulfed the freighter. Last reported the freighter cut off and came alongside to fight the fire.

CLOSE TO VESSEL

The corvette approached so close to the blazing ship that "you could easily have thrown one to the other," said Kenogami's executive officer, Lt. Ralph G. McKenzie, of Regina.

As the ships closed, Sub-Lt. Ray Ostlund of Lethbridge, Alta., rescued the crew members of the freighter.

From two hoses, seamen bled away streams of salt water on the flames. On the freighter, the crew formed a bucket brigade and attacked the fire with hand extinguishers as well.

The chemically-stoked flames created "like incendiary bombs," one of Kenogami's officers said.

In less than an hour the freighter's deck was untenable and the captain ordered "abandon ship."

The freighter crew skillfully lowered lifeboats and pulled over to the corvette.

It was Kenogami's third rescue exploit in 2½ years and brought to 215 the total of persons she has saved.

EDMONTON SKIPPER

The commanding officer, Lt. Cmdr. Fred R. K. Nafel, R.C.N., of Regina, mentioned the firing of the charges. Other men who participated in the action included Sub-Lt. Thomas Peters of Fort Saskatchewan, Alta.

Wander why some smart track meet promoter doesn't persuade Ed Dadds to have a shot at the three-quarter mile record, which he beat unofficially last Saturday?

It seems sure now that the thoroughbred going to break the mile record as long as he runs those six-second last quarters... George Walsh, the referee, has worked in the weekly fight bouts at Camp Upton, N.Y., without a miss for over two years, paying his own expenses for the trips... What may be a tip on the class of major league baseball this year is Bill Brandt's compilation showing that 75 National League rookies became first-time players last year and there are only 78 rookies coming up this spring.

Today's Guest Star—
Bill Reddy, Syracuse, N.Y. Post-Standard. "Al" Doug Pepper Martin may be an asset to the Cardinals because he can't be drafted, but his rheumatic experience indicates that he can't stand drafty air.

Proulx and Reardon Star In Hockey Fixture Overseas

By ALLAN NICKLESON
BRIGHTON, Eng., March 1.—(CP Cable)—A fast skating private with a deceptive shift and a captain who used to play with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League, shot five goals Tuesday as a reinforcement unit walloped the Camerons 8-4 in the first game of a best-of-three series for the Canadian Army Overseas (United Kingdom) championship.

The fellow from the ranks, H. Proulx of Edmonton, scored three times and assisted in two goals, while the former professional, Capt. Gordon Poirier of Hialeah, Fla., added two goals. C. R. S. Millard of Winnipeg with two goals and one assist and Sapper W. D. Sibbald of Saskatoon completed the scoring for the winners.

Also prominent in the reinforcement unit's victory was Cpl. Ken Reardon of Edmonton whose brother, Lionel Terry Reardon, led the Camerons, adding, scoring once. Opponents yesterday, the Reardon once played together with Montreal Canadiens and Terry was also for a time with Boston Bruins.

P. J. Cassidy of Galt, Ont., scored two for the losers who were representing a Canadian division. P. J. Cassidy of Yorkton, Sask., and the fourth, Sapper W. D. Sibbald of Saskatoon.

Besides Ken Reardon and Poirier, another former National League player prominent in the reinforcement unit triumph was Lionel Terry Reardon of Galt, Ont., formerly of Boston Bruins.

These three soldiers arrived in Britain a few weeks ago, bolstering their team so what is a strong team to take the series to two straight games.

Jimmy Bivins

Defeats Murray In Return Bout

CLEVELAND, March 1.—(AP)—Jimmy Bivins made a savage defense of his rating as the No. 1 active heavyweight by winning a unanimous decision over Lee Q. Murray in a return bout before a sell-out crowd of 13,774 at the Arena Tuesday night. Bivins weighed 191 pounds, the heaviest of his career, but gave away 115 pounds to the lankier, 180-pounder.

The decision was Bivins' second straight over the big fellow from South-North Carolina. The firing from a tiger-like Bivins reached its climax in the ninth round. He rushed out of his corner and tagged Murray flush on the face with a vicious right.

Murray dropped to the canvas and took a count of nine. Bivins was out to finish it but Murray threw up enough of a defense to go the route.

Beat The Best—

Never Run Title

PHILADELPHIA, March 1.—(AP)—Hugh F. Clark, 25, lightweight boxer who fought in some of Philadelphia's greatest ring battles early in the century under the name of "Y" Yip, died at his home Tuesday night.

Clark was one of the greatest fighters in the days of no-decision fights and was credited with beating all of them, but he never threw up enough of a defense to go the route.

Those he fought included Freddie White, Alkali, Harry Lewis, Kid Lavigne, Young Corbett, Spike Robinson, Percy McFarland, Clarence Foster, Mike Goldberg, Ansel Herrera, Harlem Tommy Murphy, Leach Cross, Long Hock, Young Ameer, Young Griffith and Ray Stronon.

C.C.F. Selects Candidate For West Edmonton

Miss Mary K. Crawford, unanimously nominated as Co-operative Commonwealth Federation candidate for the Dominion constituency of West Edmonton, at a convention held Monday evening in the I.O.O.F. hall, 103 street, said she had twice carried the C.C.F. banner—in 1935 and 1940—in West Edmonton, and this time would carry it to Ottawa. She will contest the seat in the next Dominion general election.

Monopoly Plan Is Condemned By Legislature

By a majority of 22-15 vote, the resolution was passed. The resolution was introduced by Mr. Roper, who said that when people talked of the two as being separate, he wondered if they knew the kind of world it would be like.

The member referred to a copy of a "Survey of Corporate Securities" put out by the Financial Post of Toronto, which said that all the people could read it, they would be shocked by the next morning.

He then read a statement from this publication which showed that of 14 directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway, all but two of them were directors of five different banks.

"How can you separate financial from industrial interests?" Mr. Roper asked, after he had told how these directorates were interlocked through major Canadian industries.

"He went on to say, 'This is a great monopoly, one that controls the economy and the life of the country.'"

REFERS TO REPORT

Making a reference to the March report on social security, the C.C.F. member said that in 1941 510,000 Canadian families had an average income of $700 a year, or a total income of $357,000,000.

He then told of 628 corporations in Canada with capital assets of more than $100,000,000, and that after deducting depreciation and depletion, they had a net income of $280,000,000, or $450,000,000 more than the income of the 510,000 families referred to earlier.

A survey in Toronto had revealed that the minimum income to enable a Canadian family to live in decency and comfort was $1,500 a year, twice as much as the $700 received by the 510,000 families, said Mr. Roper.

"If that next inequality, which is inequality," he asked the house. He said if the $280,000,000 of the corporations' profits was taken and divided among the 510,000 families, it would make all the difference between poverty and a half-decent standard of living.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

With reference to public ownership of the natural resources, Mr. Roper said he believed in it, and added he was going to press for a progressive application of the principle of public ownership of natural resources, every time an opportunity presented itself in the house.

"Social" ownership is a bigger term than "public" ownership, and includes national public ownership, the member continued. He said that national public ownership would take in the national financial institutions, "which certainly are a monopoly."

Discussing the municipal form of public ownership, Mr. Roper pointed to the utilities over, where they were responsible for reduction of city taxes, and that on his home, for example, the taxes had dropped from $167 of some years back, to $124 a year.

Because the city owned the utilities, Mr. Roper said he received a dividend of $100 a year in taxes, and that tax savings could also be shown in reduced business taxes.

Pointing to the co-operation form of public ownership, Mr. Roper cited the example of the Northern Alberta Dairy Pool, which recently distributed $64,000 among 34 producers of whole milk, because of heavy volume of business created by the city's population growth.

The member said this was a dividend that went to the producers.

It's All a Matter of Opinion

Lion or lamb? Step right this way and take your pick, ladies and gentlemen! Whether March came in this morning as a gentle lamb or a roaring lion is to weather experts and newsmen a moot point as the saying goes. So the Edmonton Bulletin is going to take the advantage of the great institution of democracy and let the people decide. The reasons for leaving the question to the "selectors" are quite valid when you consider them. In the first place it was still snowing, cold and gray Wednesday morning, but warmer than it has been for some days. In comparison to the average weather of the winter, March 1 died up a fairly robust variety. But it is showing definite signs of improving. Hence the dilemma. One above was the temperature at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, and 1 above was the minimum through the night Tuesday. Highest for Tuesday was 7 above, and lowest 7 below zero Tuesday morning. Seven below is the coldest of the most recent visitation of sub-zero weather. Lowest temperature of the winter was 16 below. There were 12 inches of snow Tuesday, and snow was still falling lightly Wednesday morning. Forecast is for cloudy weather with snowfalls, and a little lower temperature Wednesday night.

Mr. Amley stated, "Social" ownership means owned by the people. Just before, he said the "people" and "state" were the same thing. This is advocating state ownership of the farms."

The member then moved his substitute resolution, which appears below, seconded by Mr. Savers.

"That all the words after the first 'whereas' of Mr. Roper's resolution be and the preamble be struck out and the following substituted:

"Whereas agriculture is the basis of the economy of the province and the development of agricultural lands under private ownership is the means of production and security of tenure of the owner-occupier is essential to the establishment of an effective economy; and

"Whereas private ownership and individual enterprise is being abused by the encroachment of private and state monopolies; and

"Whereas centralized monopoly control, whether by private industry or the state is totalitarian and anti-democratic in operation."

SECOND SUBSTITUTION

Also that all the words after the word "this" in the first line of the resolution be struck out and the following substituted:

"Legislative Assembly of Alberta is in favor of the following measures to promote economic democracy and to counteract the encroachments being made upon the liberty of individual citizens by monopoly interests, whether private or state.

1.—A system of land tenure that will prevent the dispossession of the owner-occupier and provide protection from financial monopoly.

2.—Continued encouragement and assistance by the provincial government to the operation and expansion of co-operative enterprises to overcome monopoly market control.

3.—Government encouragement and assistance for the development of public utility services with control of policy being exercised by the taxpayers, either provincial or municipal.

4.—The continuation and extension of the provincial government's policy of establishing government services for the purpose of providing effective competition in any field where a combine or monopoly is exploiting the people.

5.—The continuation of the provincial government's policy of leasing oil and timber lands on a fair royalty basis and on conditions which will remove monopoly control and effectively safeguard the people's interests.

6.—The reform of the financial system so as to provide farmers and other primary producers with adequate credit facilities and proper marketing conditions, and give consumers access to the goods and services available, through the principle of directly financing consumption.

AGAINST MONOPOLIES

Mr. Savers said, "I don't like monopolies, either state or private. A state monopoly can be as overbearing and downbearing as a private monopoly and there is nothing you can do about a state monopoly."

The development of resources as Mr. Amley's amendment will not meet present problems, as long as we are under a debt economy, so that we can't do anything.

When the debate resumed at the Tuesday night sitting, Hon. Mr. Amley said that the provincial treasurer and minister of education, entered the debate. He said it was important that matters such as different industries be discussed.

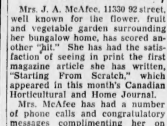

"Socialism" is just another word for "monopoly" in land, labor, and capital, and it promises everything but a money vote and freedom of choice. We must have no policy of approval towards Socialism, Mr. Amley declared.

Earlier in his address, he declared that Mr. Roper had advocated state ownership of the farms. "Mr. Roper said he wants 'social' ownership of the farms."

"They realize that Socialism is not compatible with true democracy," he added.

AGREES IN PART When Mr. Roper rose to speak to Mr. Amley's amendment, he said there were some parts of the amendment with which he agreed. He discussed security of tenure for the farmers of the country, and quoted from the publication, "Make

City Gardener Author of Story

Mrs. J. A. McAfee, 11320 92nd street, well known for the flower, fruit and vegetable garden surrounding her bungalow home, has secured another "hit." She has had the satisfaction of seeing in print the first magazine article she has written, "Burling From Scratch," which appeared in this month's Canadian Horticultural and Home Journal.

Mrs. McAfee has had a number of phone calls and congratulatory messages, complimenting her for her lawn.

For four successive years, the industrious Edmonton gardener and lover of flowers has won cups and awards for her garden, and she also received a beautiful silver cup for her lawn.

Professors Win Army Promotion

Promotion of two University of Alberta professors to the rank of major in the University of Alberta Contingent of the Canadian Officers' Training School, was announced today by headquarters of Military District No. 13 at Calgary.

The member then moved his substitute resolution, which appears below, seconded by Mr. Savers.

Major Hartly, well-known as an official of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and president of the International Amateur Hockey Association, served with the Overseas Training Corps, from March 1917, to June 1918.

Major Owen, who served in the First Great War from 1914 to 1919, joined the Canadian Infantry Brigade, in 1915. He was appointed to a commission in 1918 and was wounded in 1917.

Ban on Members Of Forces Writing For Press Lifted

OTTAWA, March 1.—(C.P.)—Defence Minister Laidlaw yesterday lifted the ban on members of the Canadian Forces writing for the press, after regulation forbidding the writing of articles for the press without the consent of defence headquarters has been rescinded, leaving only the old rule in King's Regulations and Orders which forbids the writing of articles on military subjects.

The minister made his statement in reply to T. C. Douglas, C.C.F. member who had on an earlier occasion urged the ban on officers writing for the press.

This Year Canada, which outlines C.C.F. policy, says it speaks of security of tenure for the farmer on his farm. That is the policy of the present, and has been since the House," the member declared.

He told the Legislature that he could not support the amendment which calls for continuation of the government policy of leasing oil and timber lands, on a fair royalty basis.

With regard to the country's banking system, he said, "I did not say there was nothing wrong with the banking system. There is something wrong with it. It is owned by the people of Canada. I said it served admirably the people it was designed to serve."

Mr. Roper also denied that he had said the small business man, and said that he himself was one of them.

VIEW ON MONOPOLIES

Regarding the attitude of Social Credit to the monopolies, the C.C.F. member said, "I don't think they are for a monopoly which we don't control, to one that we could control. He asked, 'How would you break up a monopoly like the C.P.R. which has price for their products, with adequate credit facilities and proper marketing conditions, and give consumers access to the goods and services available, through the principle of directly financing consumption.'"

According to the minutes, Mr. Roper said, "I don't like monopolies, either state or private. A state monopoly can be as overbearing and downbearing as a private monopoly and there is nothing you can do about a state monopoly."

The development of resources as Mr. Amley's amendment will not meet present problems, as long as we are under a debt economy, so that we can't do anything.
